Futureshapers and ABNLP invite you to a workshop on …

Working With Parts

A "new-look" workshop and practice night.
Open to NLPers of all levels and anyone interested in NLP
Suitable for NLPers, trainers, teachers, managers and anyone wishing to develop their communication skills and NLP skills.

What's in it for YOU?

We will explore the choices available when "working with parts". It has been said that the potential appeal of the model can get rapport and allow leverage very quickly when required. Milton Erickson often installed new patterns directly into the unconscious mind using metaphors and 'parts' can easily be linked to this work. With the view of mind/body wellbeing this is an ideal model to learn and use.

Date Time and Venue

Wednesday 19 Oct 11
7.00 for a 7.30 start.
The Elsternwick Club,
19 Sandham Street Elsternwick

Refreshments

A choice of refreshments are available at the bar and will compliment the relaxed style of the workshop. Ample free parking.

Investment

$10.00

An excellent choice of guest speakers will be delivering to our training group and each will have their own speciality. This is the ONLY central practice/training group in Melbourne and we look forward to encouraging NLPers to not only attend but also network and create a beneficial symmetry.
